1. Applicant's amendment, received 06 March 06, has been entered. Claim 1 has been modified so that it now reads on elected group III. Accordingly, all claims dependent therefrom have been rejoined. This means that there are currently zero withdrawn claims.

2. Claims 6-12 and 14 are objected to because of the recite numerous features that are redundant to the parent claims. This was caused by Applicants amending the parent claims without amending the child claims, and should be easily fixable.

Appropriate correction is required.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1,2,4,16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bracewell '377, who shows a machine with all of the recited limitations including;

Vertical stanchions (on left and right sides).

Several horizontal support members extending between these vertical stanchions,

An arm member (10,9),

A hydraulic cylinder having a reservoir and control (figure 6),

A blade (35,27).

A punch assembly (17),

A pivot portion (56),

A ram (e.g. 36). Note that the ram is laterally positionable, so it is capable of being halfway between the pivot and cylinder.

A punch mating assembly (23).

A shear blade (27) mounted on a first portion (9) of the arm (9,10),

A second horizontal support member having a work surface (52,51).

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bracewell '377, who shows a machine with most of the recited limitations as set forth above. In regards to claim 18, the courts have long held that such issues of magnitude are considered obvious. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have made Bracewell's punch have 80 tons of force and the ram 50 tons of force, in order to cut thru hard and thick materials.

7. Claim 19 is allowed.

8. Claims 3,5-12,14,20 and 21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form to overcome the objections and include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

9. Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues against the Bracewell rejection, but has not specifically pointed out what Bracewell is missing.

Made of record but not relied on is a patent to Magnuson et al. showing a pertinent punch/shear combo.

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
